

STEEL SECURITY DOORS

A steel security door provides additional protection for vacant properties, homes and commercial premises, protecting the building and keeping contents secure when the property is empty. Doors are the main access point to any building and these waterproof steel security doors provide a robust barrier against intrusion.

Key Features & Benefits

Reinforced Steel Protection

Very effective and highly visible physical barrier. Secured internally causing no damage to existing frame

Multi-Point Locking System

High security 2 - point locking system , 5 lever mortice locks , kite marked to British standard BS-3621

Multiple Access Point

Master key can be provided if more doors are required for same site

Custom Sizes Available

Manufactured in multiple sizes